

MULTIHULL HAVENS AROUND THE COAST

If you want to provide info about your area please get in touch with Mark Mount 07710 253690 mdc@mdcm.fsnet.co.uk

SLIPWAY/HOIST	EVENTS	GENERAL INFORMATION
Ron Nielson at Wilsons for slip & hoist Thornham for hoist	Al Wood and a group of local owners are keen to start some informal racing. Racing has to be outside the harbour though If you are interested then get in touch!	Sea Teach chandlery by the station at Emsworth. Harbur Chandlers at Emsworth Marina Beer & sausages try Sussex Brewery, Emsworth
Slipway at Multihull Centre Big hoist at Yacht Haven	Plymouth-Falmouth-Fowey-Plymouth race April 30-May 2 by Royal Western Popular with multihulls	Millbrook is where most multihulls go. Contact Simon Baker if want to race
Yealm Yacht Club	Looking for multihull entrants for Yealm to La Rochelle race August 12, 2006	Not many multihulls around that we know of, but Peter is keen to encourage us
Grove Place Boat Park slip Travel hoist Call Harbour Office	Regatta August 5-12 Port of Falmouth Sailing Association	Multihull class in regatta Contact Mike Webb (owner of Pendennia Marina) for extra info
Best slip in Bristol Channel at Knightstone Harbour on north end of Weston Bay Good slip at Uphill	Multihull starts in summer series and in regatta July 8/9, 2006	Don recommends The Dolphin in Uphill
Good slip in harbour	Ilfracombe organises Round Lundy Race May 28, 2006. 42 nm. Multis can have own start if enough	YC overlooks harbour, good food. Many B&Bs
Penarth Marina Cardiff YC (visitors welcome) has hoist but only small slip	No multihull racing but a number of multihull owners in area. Excellent cruising and a visit up to historic dockyard at Bristol is recommended. The Duke Pub is popular. Definitive area guide is The Blue Book see www.bristolchannel.co.uk/	Cardiff Bay is landlocked by the barrage. It is open 24/7 with 2 locks per hour in summer and 1 per hour winter. Inside is a 500 acre flat fresh water lake
Travel hoist & crane but check beam width Swansea YC have slip	No racing but good holiday spot for Gower Peninsula & beaches!	Big tidal range up to 36' Contact Malcolm Ratcliffe for good local multihull related info
Dynas Boatyard, Dinorwic Caernarfon Victoria Dock	Menai Bridge Boat Club organise Menai Straits Regatta last week July. First race of regatta is Round Anglesey Race (70 miles). Has a multihull start. NWVYC organise a 2-stage round Anglesey race over August bank hol also allows multihulls	John Partington is President of NWVYC & organises handicaps He'll assist with multihull starts if more than 2 boats!

